Inauguration Ball.

It will be seen by advertisement that gentlemen desiring to attend can obtain permits of J. W. Tate, E. Hensley, R. B. Taylor, or G. R. Vallandigham, gentlemen's Invitation Committee.

Tickets $5. For sale at Keenon & Crutcher's, Tate & Chinn's, R. W. Blackburn's, and at the office of the Capital Hotel.

It will be seen from the official publication of the Board of Examiners in another column, that the certificate of election in the Fourth District, contrary to the expectations of most persons, has been given to W. C. Anderson. We had neither time nor space, at the late hour at which we received the copy of the returns from the Secretary, to characterize the action of the Board as it deserves.

For the present, it is sufficient to say that the official returns before the Board showed a clear majority for Christian; and the attempt to deprive him of his seat in Congress will meet with indignation from all right-thinking men.

The flimsy argument and the weak attempt to conceal the facts, which is put forth by the Board to cover up their short-comings, will miserably fail in their purpose. The production of the Governor, Secretary, and Attorney General, will hurt nobody but themselves and the expiring political faction which in this instance it is to be hoped they misrepresent.

When the Board can prove that 50 and 1 make 47 on Christian's side of the poll in Cumberland county, they can satisfy the people that they acted fairly; but not till then. Among the numbers of Democrats now present in Frankfort there is but one opinion of the action of the Board, and we will not mar the good feeling now prevailing in the festivities of the Inauguration by repeating it in plain language. The last act of the Know-Nothing administration is in perfect keeping with its former practices.

The Majorities.

From the certificate of the Board of Examiners, in another part of our paper, it will be seen that the candidates upon the Democratic State ticket are severally elected by the following majorities, viz:

Magdolia—Governor.....8,991
Burd—Lieutenant Governor.....11,713
James—Attorney General.....12,856
Green—Auditor.....7,535
Garard—Treasurer.....13,453
Frazier—Register.....13,453
Richardson—Sup. of Pub. Instruction.....13,426
Bates—President Board of Ind. Insp.....12,704

The average majority of the ticket is 11,249. Magdolia's total vote is 76,187—the largest ever obtained by any candidate in the State. Who says that Kentucky is not Democratic to the core?

The Fifth District sends three Democrats and one Oppositionist to the Senate and nine Democrats and two Oppositionists to the House. This is a gain of one member over the last Legislature.

At the time of going to press our town is full of overflowing of the Democracy of all parts of the State to witness and take part in the ceremonies to come off to-day.

George W. McDonald, Jr., has been appointed U. S. Deputy Marshal for Northern Kentucky.

The returns of the Board of Examiners will be found in another column. We scarcely know how to enter the law or the logic. It is difficult to take folly to pieces so as to show up its mistakes. Does he expect his friends to defend, or his enemies to attack, such law? Does he really believe that the Ballitt and Wheat case is entirely forgotten? We have the most respect for him. We believe he is a true and honorable Kentucky gentleman, but really, we fear he has made a mistake—

We are afraid he has fallen into error—we are, perhaps, ashamed of him, and hesitate to bring the influence of the law to bear upon him.

It is seriously a fact that the correct returns are a statement by the clerk that after the Examiners had given the certificate of the vote of the county, he, the clerk, had loaned the poll books? Is it positively understood that there is no real mistake about the duties of the Governor of Kentucky, his Secretary of State, and Attorney General? Will they compel us to quote the Statutes of Kentucky to its law-givers, or must we, after three years' civil intercourse with a kindly, clever gentleman, have to say how gravely we disagree with him.

The Kentucky Statesman, commenting on the fact that although the Democracy have carried Kentucky by the largest vote ever polled in the State, yet the Opposition elect four if not five Congressmen, says:

"A comparison of the vote of the several districts shows the unfairness of the apportionment yet more clearly. The effort seems to have been to concentrate the whole Democratic strength of the State into two or three districts, and to divide the Opposition forces to give it a small but certain ascendancy in the remaining districts. For instance, the First, Fifth, and Tenth Districts give each a larger majority for Magdolia than Bell receives in every other District in the State combined. The Democratic majority in each of these Districts will exceed the aggregate Opposition majority in the five Districts carried by Bell. Magdolia carried seven Districts by 10,000 in majority, while Bell carried three by 1,175. This is all the result of the partisan apportionment of the State by which Kentucky is misrepresented in the National Legislature, and her people defrauded of their true influence in Congress. These are facts which the attention of the Democratic members of the next Legislature will be invited to let them protect the people from such outrages, and see that Kentucky is truly represented in Congress."

We regret your law. We are sorry for your interpretation. Must they be delivered in a sealed envelop? Is it positive that any thing must be delivered in a sealed envelop?

Are you—we ask you out of pure love and intense affection—are you—sure of any position you have taken? We never were the Governor of Kentucky. It is among the possibilities that we may not be; but we would like to be fully informed, respectfully informed, upon your law, logic, and English. We are liable to make mistakes. You Opposition have said so frequently, and we know you are correct; possibly, from your political success, we ought to be positive.

Were such additional returns legal? Can you not be positive, fellow-Christians, fellow-scholars, fellow-committee men? Would you, our dearest friends, be required to receive them? We would like for you to inform us. We trust that you didn't read all that you said of Nelson county. We are sure—we love you too much to believe that you read any thing about the Ballitt and Wheat election, and the folly about the State Board of Election.

We understand in your concluding paragraph that it is "proper to draw a distinction." We agree with you entirely. There are a number of elegant distinctions that possibly you ought to have drawn, and that we should have pointed out; but we have erred, nearly as much as the last Know-Nothing Governor of Kentucky.

Met Allen's Report.—The first volume of Met Allen's Reports of decisions of the Court of Appeals of Kentucky is bound and ready for delivery, and may be had of the Reporter or at either of the book-stores in Frankfort. Price $5 per volume. Persons wishing a volume sent by mail may remit the price and it will be forwarded postage paid. ad24 if Unfair Apportionment.

The Kentucky Statesman, commenting on the fact that although the Democracy have carried Kentucky by the largest vote ever polled in the State, yet the Opposition elect four if not five Congressmen, says:

"A comparison of the vote of the several districts shows the unfairness of the apportionment yet more clearly. The effort seems to have been to concentrate the whole Democratic strength of the State into two or three districts, and to divide the Opposition forces to give it a small but certain ascendancy in the remaining districts. For instance, the First, Fifth, and Tenth Districts give each a larger majority for Magdolia than Bell receives in every other District in the State combined. The Democratic majority in each of these Districts will exceed the aggregate Opposition majority in the five Districts carried by Bell. Magdolia carried seven Districts by 10,000 in majority, while Bell carried three by 1,175. This is all the result of the partisan apportionment of the State by which Kentucky is misrepresented in the National Legislature, and her people defrauded of their true influence in Congress. These are facts which the attention of the Democratic members of the next Legislature will be invited to let them protect the people from such outrages, and see that Kentucky is truly represented in Congress."

PROGRAMME

CEREMONIES OF INAUGURATION,
ON THE 30th AUGUST, 1859.

The recent election has resulted in the choice of Brian Magdolia as the Governor of our State for the four years succeeding the 30th of August, 1859. The inauguration will consequently take place on that day at this the Capital of the State.

It is the universal custom of the citizens of Frankfort, with that warm and generous hospitality for which they are so well known, and which they know so well how to use, to do for the people of the State, without distinction of party, to celebrate with appropriate ceremonies, an event of such national importance to all the citizens of this Commonwealth.

On this occasion we sincerely hope that the various party spirit may not be heard, and that, as citizens having a common interest in the prosperity and happiness of the State, we will cordially unite in showing that respect to the distinguished individual who has been chosen for the people to preside over them as their Governor, and as his future neighbors and friends, will give him a hearty welcome to the Capital of our State, with whose destiny he will have so much to do for the next four years.

We, therefore, as a committee associated without reference to party, respectfully invite our fellow-citizens, generally, to unite in the inaugural ceremonies.

Rheumatism Cured.

To the readers of the Yeoman: Preserve this notice. It is not afflicted yourself, you may see suffering humanity by sending it to some one who is.

Dr. Mortimore, by personal treatment, and the use of his remedy, by Physicians and Druggists, has cured probably twenty thousand cases of this painful and paralyzing disease—comprising cases of every seeming form, from those of a recent inflammatory (acute) character, to old chronic cases of ten, twenty, and even thirty years' standing.

This disease is becoming more prevalent every year, and is seldom cured, or even alleviated, by the usual course of treatment. In its active form it often proves fatal, or if not soon arrested, becomes chronic—stiffens the joints, contracts the ligaments, muscles, and tendons, and thus renders the sufferer a cripple for life, or, if ever at intervals on end, even by the use of this remedy, requires longer treatment and greater expense.

This is a vegetable internal remedy which cures the profligate of it after long suffering, and all the usual remedies have failed, and is safe to be used in any state of health—even by
